3. CREATION OF UNITS

3.1 The beneficial interest in the Trust Fund shall initially be divided into the total number of units referred to in the Schedule to this Deed as Initial Units.

3.2 Every unit shall confer a vested and indefeasible interest in the Unit Holder of an equal interest in the Trust Fund but shall not confer any interest in any particular part of the Trust Fund but only such interest in the Trust Fund as a whole as is conferred on a unit under the provisions contained in this Deed.

3.3 At any given date all the units into which the beneficial interest in the Trust Fund is for the time being divided shall be of equal value.

4. INITIAL UNITS

Upon execution of this Deed by all parties to this Deed, the Initial Unit Holders shall immediately become Unit Holders in respect of the number of Initial Units set out against their respective names in the Schedule to this Deed and such Initial Units shall be units for all purposes of this Deed. The Trustee shall cause the names of the Initial Unit Holders to be entered in the Register in respect of the Initial Units so held by them. The Initial Units shall, for the purposes of this Deed, be deemed to have been issued to the Initial Unit Holders for a total price equal to the Initial Amount on the date of this Deed, and the Initial Unit Holders shall be deemed to have paid that price to the Trustee.

5. CREATION OF ADDITIONAL UNITS

The Trustee, provided it has the consent of Unit Holders who, between them, hold 100% of the Issued Units, may at any time prior to the termination of the Trust issue and thereby create additional units at a price determined in accordance with clause 8.

6. INTEREST OF UNIT HOLDER

- 6.1 A Unit Holder shall be entitled as herein provided to a vested and indefeasible interest in the income and capital of the Trust Fund but such interest shall not entitle the Unit Holder other than as herein provided.

- 6.3 The number of Unit Holders shall not exceed 20. The Trustee shall not issue units, or register a transfer or transmission of units, if it would cause the number of Unit Holders to exceed 20.

7. CURRENT UNIT VALUE

The Current Unit Value at any time shall be determined on the basis of the net asset value, according to Australian accounting principles. Such value may be agreed to by all the Unit Holders and in default of such agreement shall be determined by the Approved Valuer. In making such determination, the Approved Valuer shall be acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator, may engage and rely upon such experts as he thinks fit and his determination shall be final and binding on the Trustee, all Unit Holders, all former Unit Holders and any other interested party. The cost of any such determination shall be borne by the Unit Holders in the same proportion as the number of units they each hold bears to the total number of Units on Issue at the time such determination is requested.

8. PRICE OF NEW UNITS

- 8.1 The price of a new unit shall be such amount as is the Current Unit Value, adjusted to the nearest one cent, or such other amount as is agreed to by all the Unit Holders.

by the Trustee is the equivalent of the price determined in accordance with subclause 8.1.

9. CONSENT OF UNIT HOLDERS

- 9.1 The Trustee must obtain the consent of at least one hundred percent (100%) of the Unit Holders before exercising any of the reserved powers. For the purpose of this clause, the percentage shall be calculated by reference to the number of units held by each unitholder.

 - (b) ending the Trust under clause 12 (which requires the unanimous consent of the Unit Holders);

- 10.2 A request for redemption shall be made in writing unless otherwise required by the Trustee.
- 10.3 On receipt of a request by a Unit Holder (other than a Unit Holder which has notified the Trustee that it holds the Units as trustee of a superannuation fund) the Trustee, provided it has the consent of Unit Holders who, between them, hold 100% of the Issued Units, shall, within 7 days by notice in writing to the relevant Unit Holder, determine to redeem all the Units requested to be redeemed. On receipt of a request by a Unit Holder which has notified the Trustee that it holds the Units as trustee of a superannuation fund, the Trustee shall, within 7 days by notice in writing to the relevant Unit Holder, determine to redeem all the Units requested to be redeemed. In either case the determination shall become effective immediately when the determination is made whereupon the units the subject of the determination shall be taken to have been redeemed immediately and the Unit Holder shall be taken not to be a Unit Holder in respect of those units.

subject of the determination and shall pay the Current Unit Value of those units, less any expenses or charges attributable to the redemption, to the Unit Holder within 30 days of the determination to redeem.

- 10.5 The Trustee shall remove the name of the registered holder from the Register in respect of all or such number of units as have been redeemed, and shall cancel any certificate relating to such units.
- 10.6 The number of units so redeemed shall be taken to be cancelled and shall not thereafter be reissued but this clause shall not limit or restrict the right of the Trustee to create and/or issue further or other units.

11. DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME AND CAPITAL

- 11.1 Subject to sub-clause 11.2, the Trustee shall have power to determine in its absolute discretion whether any receipt, profit or gain or payment, loss or outgoing or any sum of money or investment is or is not to be treated as being on income or capital account provided that if the Trustee shall fail to make a determination or to the extent to which the Trustee fails to make a determination prior to the end of an Accounting Period then the income of the Trust Fund for such Accounting Period shall be calculated in the same manner as the net income of a trust estate is to be calculated under the provisions of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth) and the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth).
- 11.2 At the end of each Accounting Period, the Unit Holders shall be presently and absolutely entitled to the Net Income of the Trust Fund derived during such Accounting Period in the same proportion as the number of units held by each Unit Holder bears to the Units on Issue at the end of the Accounting Period.
- 11.3 Any amount of Net Income of the Trust Fund to which a person has pursuant to subclause 11.2 become entitled at the expiration of an Accounting Period but which has not been distributed to him shall cease to form part of the Trust Fund and shall be held by the Trustee as a separate fund upon trust absolutely for the person entitled thereto but the Trustee shall for convenience of administration have power in respect of the assets of such separate fund to mix and invest the same jointly with the assets of the Trust Fund.
- 11.4 The Trustee may at any time during an Accounting Period, resolve to make an interim distribution of the Net Income of the Trust Fund on account of the entitlement of a Unit Holder pursuant to subclause 11.2, and upon so resolving the Net Income of the Trust Fund the subject of such resolution shall cease to form part of the Trust Fund and shall be held by the Trustee as a separate fund upon trust absolutely for the persons entitled thereto but the Trustee shall, for convenience of administration, have power in respect of the assets of such separate fund to mix and invest the same jointly with the assets of the Trust Fund.

11.5 The Trustee may from time to time distribute any part of the capital of the Trust Fund in excess of the requirements of the Trust Fund among the Unit Holders who have a right to capital in the same proportion as the number of units held by each Unit Holder bears to the Units on Issue.

11.6 Upon the trust hereby created terminating pursuant to clause 12, the Trustee shall distribute the Trust Fund as provided for in clause 12.

12. PERIOD OF TRUST AND TERMINATION

12.1 The Trust shall be deemed to have commenced on the date of this Deed and to terminate, unless previously terminated by the provisions of this Deed, on the Vesting Day.

12.2 At any time before the date referred to in subparagraph (i) of the definition of the Vesting Day, the Trustee, provided it has the consent of Unit Holders who, between them, hold 100% of the Issued Units, may by deed or oral or written resolution appoint an earlier date to be the Vesting Day.

12.3 (a) Subject to paragraph (b) of this subclause, upon the termination of the Trust the Trustee shall proceed as follows:

- (i) sell and realise the Trust Fund and such sale so far as reasonably practicable shall be completed within 180 days after the termination of the Trust;
- (ii) from time to time distribute to the Unit Holders pro rata to the number of units held by them respectively all net cash proceeds derived from the realisation of the Trust Fund and available for the purpose of such distribution provided that the Trustee shall be entitled to retain out of any moneys in its hands under the provisions of this clause full provision for all costs, charges, expenses, claims and demands incurred made or apprehended by the Trustee in connection with or arising out of the liquidation of the Trust including the fees of any agents, solicitors, bankers, accountants or other persons whom the Trustee may employ in connection with the winding up of the Trust and out of the moneys so retained the Trustee shall be indemnified and saved harmless against any such demands. Every such distribution shall be made only against delivery to the Trustee of the certificate relating to the units in respect of which the same is made together with such form of receipt and discharge as may be required by the Trustee.

(b) If the Trustee shall be satisfied that the Unit Holders have prior to the Vesting Day agreed by resolution to any valid scheme for the distribution of assets in specie, or the continuation of the Trust or for its conversion into an alternative type of trust without breaching the rule against perpetuities, or for the sale and realisation of the Trust Fund otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of subclause 12.3, the Trustee may comply with such scheme and on such compliance shall be discharged from all claims or liabilities in respect of the sale and realisation of the Trust Fund.

21.12 A Unit Holder who is of unsound mind or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health may vote, whether on a show of hands or a poll, by his committee or trustee or by such other person as properly has the management of his affairs, and any such committee, trustee or other person may vote by proxy or attorney.

21.14 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under seal or under the hand of a statutory officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy may, but need not be, a Unit Holder. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

21.15 A corporation being a Unit Holder may vote by any statutory officer or representative duly authorised, who shall be entitled to speak, demand a poll, vote, act as proxy and in all other respects exercise the rights of a Unit Holder and shall be reckoned as a Unit Holder for all purposes.

21.16 The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of such power or authority shall be deposited with the Trustee not less than 2 clear days before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 12 months from the date of its execution.

21.17 An instrument appointing a proxy may be in any form sufficient to convey to the Trustee that a proxy has been appointed in respect of a particular meeting.

21.18 The Chairman may with the consent of any meeting of Unit Holders adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place.

- 22.3 No Unit Holder shall be entitled to receive, except with the consent of the Trustee, any information from the Trustee relating to the matters referred to in this clause provided that nothing in this clause 22 shall prevent the Trustee from:
- (a) providing a Unit Holder with a copy of this Deed (and any amendment to this Deed);

A Transfer Notice shall constitute the Trustee his agent for the sale of his units in one or more lots at the discretion of the Trustee at a price to be agreed upon by the Unit Holder and the Trustee or, in default of such agreement, at the Current Unit Value.
- 27.3 Upon the price being fixed the Trustee shall forthwith give notice to all other Unit Holders of the number and the price of the units to be sold and offer such units for sale to the other Unit Holders in the same proportions as their existing holdings bear to the total number of units held by the Unit Holders receiving such offer and invite each of them to state in writing within 21 days from the date of the notice whether they are willing to purchase any and if so what number of the units.
